1. Claim 10,11 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim.

Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claim 10 is not proper dependent claim, it just adds claim 1 to supply network, does not further limit subject matter. Claim 11 is not proper dependent claim method claim cannot depend on a structure claim, cannot limit structure claim, also claim 11 just adds preceding claims, it does not further limit it.

2. Claim 8 is objected to because of the following informalities: not proper parenthesis in line 4. Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 6 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Regarding claim 14, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim 6 line 1 "in particular" is vague and indefinite.

Art Unit: 2837

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1,3-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE 69220228T as cited by applicant in view of Turner et al and Takana as cited by applicant.

DE 69220228T disclose motor vehicle comprising motor, energy storage device, current source and control means see abstract. DE 69220228T lacks device detecting amount of charge in energy storage means and interrupt flow of current from storage device when predetermined threshold value of remaining residual charge amount reached, and plug connector. Turner et al discloses battery state of charge diction system, and open system when charge is lower than threshold value see abstract. Takana discloses connector see fig on page 717 and 3 & 4 on page 710 about connector.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine motor vehicle of DE 69220228T with amount of charge of Turner et al and connector of Takana for fail safe protection.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Miller et al and Fisher et al disclose battery charge.
